

Launch Page for Research

<http://www.secstate.wa.gov/>

On this site search in the 'Spokane Falls Times' for newspapers from the early days of Spokane.

<http://research.washingtonhistory.org/>

This site has tons of resources and an interactive site about history in our region.

<http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/index.html>

This site is a national site, so if you're looking for Washington information specifically, you'll have to name it in your search.

<http://citationmachine.net>

A cite you can go to, type in your bibliography info, and it will create a citation for you, all formatted correctly! Use MLA format.

www.easywhois.com

A website to use if you're unsure of the author's name. You copy the URL into the box and it will search for the name for you.

www.bigchalk.com

Login to this site with the Username: SUB101ESD110 and the Password: CHILD110
Then search in the Elibrary, these are very reliable sources.

www.sclد.org/

This website takes you to the Spokane County Library page. There you can search their card catalog and find paper resources. For older topics this is often your best bet!
